- The Submission must not contain material that is unlawful, in violation of or contrary to the laws or regulations in any state or province where Submission is created.

7. Intellectual Property: By uploading your Submission you are providing your consent to grant the Sponsor a royalty-free, irrevocable, perpetual (or for the entire term of duration of intellectual property rights), non-exclusive, sub-licensable license to use, reproduce, modify, publish, and display such Submission in whole or in part, on a worldwide basis, and to incorporate it into other works, in any form, media or technology now known or later developed for Competition or marketing purposes of Sponsor's products. If requested, entrant agrees to sign any documentation that may be required for Sponsor or its designees to fully exploit the above-referenced license grant to the Submission. In granting Sponsor such license, entrant will represent and warrant that the Submission remains unpublished and does not in any way infringe upon any third party's intellectual property rights.
8. Prize: One Winner will receive flights and accommodation for one person to attend the LEGO Education Symposium 2018 at TUFTS University in Boston, USA (June 2018). Please note that any costs incurred for local transportation including to and from the airports, car parking, meals and subsistence, additional luggage, will be at the expense of the individual attending the symposium. The prize is non-transferable and no cash alternative is available. The prize is subject to availability and the Sponsor reserves the right to substitute the prize for an alternative prize of equal or greater value.
9. Selection of Potential Winners and Odds of Winning: the Potential Winner of the Teacher Award will be selected by a panel appointed by LEGO Education Marketing Team. The panel of judges (the "Judges") will consist of members of the LEGO Education Marketing Team, and additional members to be selected based on their knowledge and experience with primary and secondary education issues. The judging panel may include past recipients of the LEGO Education Teacher Award.

Submissions will be assessed against the following criteria:

- Innovative teaching practice
- Commitment to teaching and capacity for sustained contribution to the UK teaching community
- The potential and quality of the proposed Symposium presentation.

NOTE THAT SPONSOR RESERVES THE RIGHT TO NOT SELECT ANY POTENTIAL WINNER IN THE EVENT THAT, IN THE SOLE DISCRETION OF THE JUDGES, NO SUITABLE APPLICATIONS HAVE BEEN RECEIVED.

The odds of winning will depend on the skill and talent of the entrant, as assessed by the Judges, and on the number of eligible entries received.

- 10. Claiming the Prize: The Potential Winner will be contacted via the Entrant's email address on Monday 7th May. Potential Winners have ten (10) days from the date of notification to complete and return the Winners' Documents (as described below). If the Potential Winner cannot be contacted, has not claimed their prize within (10) of days of notification, fails to complete the required Winners' Documents correctly, a new Potential Winner will be selected from all remaining eligible entries received within the Entry Period, in accordance with the Selection procedure above.
- 11. Certification of Potential Winners: The Potential Winner will be required to complete and return a set of Winner's Documents consisting of (i) a statement of eligibility; and (ii) a release of liability; and (iii) a publicity release (except where prohibited by law); and (iv) a prize acceptance form. If a Potential Winner is deemed a minor in his/her place of residence, a parent or legal guardian of the Potential Winner will also be required to sign the Winners' Documents.

Upon receipt of the fully executed Winners' Documents, and confirmation by the Judges, the Potential Winner will be certified as the winner ("Teacher Award Winner").
